PERFORMER OF THE YEAR JULI WOOD

Saxophonist Juli Wood, who has been a fixture on the Chicago jazz scene for 25 years and has appeared on stage at Finland's Pori Jazz Festival and Storyville club in Helsinki, infuses traditional Finnish folk tunes with her unique, jazzy style.

The granddaughter of Finnish immigrants, Juli tapped into her heritage for her CD Synkkä Metsä (Dark Forest), which one reviewer called, "An outstanding set with a compellingly beautiful cohesion."

Juli studied jazz at the Wisconsin Conservatory of Music and has been mentored by jazz artists she admires. In addition to performing on sax, Juli is a vocalist and composer.

Come and enjoy the jazz stylings of Juli, described by various reviewers as a "feisty saxist," "a gutsy tenor and baritone saxophonist," and one who "sings with great heart."

The Performer of the Year is a program of the non-profit Finlandia Foundation National, the premier network of Finnish-American organizations in the U.S. For information about FFN:
